The logo with the project name in the baseline or the one without the baseline should be mainly used. The logo with the baseline « Clean heat. Smart future. » as a promise/project benefit should be used only on some occasions where this kind of big picture/promise is relevant (and where we do not need to strictly answer the com requirements in official documents). => Refer to the WP9 leader

Later, when these elements come together, they will combine to form a new system, but this will not be a simple process. It will be a process of negotiation, of compromise, of adaptation. It will be a process of creating a new system, one that is different from the old one, one that is better suited to the new world. It will be a process of creating a new system, one that is different from the old one, one that is better suited to the new world.

Water quality index showed some increase, especially in the southern area, but the trend of the total dissolved solids (TDS) was not consistent. It was also not clear whether the increase in the TDS was due to the increase in the amount of water or the increase in the amount of TDS.

Questi risultati confermano la nostra ipotesi: i manager di aziende che hanno investito in capitale umano sono più orientati al mercato, in termini di atteggiamento nei confronti del cliente e di sicurezza in caso di disastri naturali. Tuttavia, i manager delle aziende che hanno investito in capitale umano sono anche più orientati al cliente e al cliente, suggerendo che le aziende che investono in capitale umano sono più orientate al cliente e al cliente.
